LEAP YEAR DAY

Saturday is that special day that comes only once every four years and i known as Leap Year. It is a day that gives girls the privilege of claiming her man, and bachelors are apt to be in for a rough day. If we live to get around to another leap year (four years from now) we should make plans for a big to-day as the residents of Ottawa, Illinois are doing this year. They are planning one of the wackiest holiday for Saturday when a man may be jailed for being unmarried. It seems LOOK OUT, MEN!

Elba High Students Selected To Attend All-State Festival

Jo Ann Brazelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brazelton and a senior at Elba High School, and Suzzanne Prior, eighth grade student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Prior, were selected by judges at the district all-state band tryouts held at Troy State College on Saturday, February 8. The Tiger Band was well represented as nine bandmembers from Elba competed in the tryouts. Jo Ann and Suzzanne were selected to represent Elba at the All-State Festival to be held at the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa March 16, 17, and 18. Three other Elba students were given honorable mention and chosen as alternates for the festival. These were Eddie Cooper, Harvey Waters, and Sandy Cain. The students who tried for district honors were Shelia Smith, Billy Mallory, and Janet Mur-In addition to these honors, Jo Ann, Sandy, Suzzanne, Harvey, and Eddie were selected to perform in the Troy State Festival
